

Harleigh's colours, a Belle handshake.

A social toolkit built on Harleigh's own palette — burgundy, brown and cream — carrying her Brisbane voice. Belle's green is welcomed in through the olive already native to her brand: a quiet point of harmony, not a takeover.

01 — THE MARK

A monogram, not a motif.

An "H" roundel does the work the flower was doing — quiet, architectural, unmistakably Harleigh. It signs off every post and story below, and sits beside the Belle logo (which always leads) without competing.

THE INTEGRATION

Belle's green doesn't fight the warmth — it resolves into the olive Harleigh's
brand already uses.

Her site carries an olive glow beside the burgundy. We make that olive the single accent — so every time Belle's green is implied, it speaks in Harleigh's own voice. Belle's true forest green is reserved for the co-brand lockup, where their logo leads.

HARLEIGH'S SELLING NOTES

No. 04

Price with strategy, not emotion.

An overpriced home grows stale fast — buyers notice the days ticking by. Price to the market and you create competition, not hesitation.
